Oxford Sub-region Integration Table (SRIT):
March 6, 2019 Meeting Highlights

- Welcome to new SRIT members: Michelle Worsfold, Director of Mental Health Services at Woodstock General Hospital (Mental Health and Addictions representative) and Julie Johnston, Senior Manager Home and Community Care at Victorian Order of Nurses (Community Support Services representative).
- The group discussed SRIT priorities and the driver diagrams created to identify change ideas. SRIT priorities include:
    - Access: Broaden access to inter-professional resources through collaboration and partnership.
    - Communication: Create a shared understanding of current initiatives and available programs and resources to improve access and flow.
    - Transitions: Improve transitions for complex patients discharged from hospital through system partnerships and collaboration.
    - Housing: Improve access to assisted living and supportive housing to ensure priority populations are receiving the right supports, in the right settings, at the right time.
- The focus of the SRIT's upcoming meetings will be on selecting change ideas and developing a work plan for the 2019/20 year.

What can you do to advance improved health, wellness, patient experience and outcomes, value for money, and provider experience across Oxford?

- Register yourself or your staff for Indigenous Cultural Safety Training (for registration, email Laura.Deyell@lhins.on.ca)
