The Financial Analyst collects and analyzes fiscal data, and performs financial modeling including analysis and recommendations that have service and organizational implications.

The successful incumbent will be responsible for the supervision of finance and payroll staff in addition to the creation of financial policies and auditing of financial performance in relation to the budget.

What Can I Expect To Do?

As a Financial Analyst, you will:

- Develop, provide analysis, and communicate on-going and ad hoc financial information across the organization.
- Provide decision support analysis to identify issues, opportunities, and emerging trends for effective and efficient resource allocation.
- Create and analyze budgets in consultation with functional departments.
- Build financial models that consider multiple drivers and relay those drivers into accurate forecasts.
- Find and explain actionable cause and effect relationships.
- Lead on-going process improvements/enhancements to ensure data integrity and accuracy.
- Prepare financial statements and Ministry reporting.
- Take full ownership of special projects and delivery of results in a timely and professional manner.
- Supervise finance and/or payroll administrative staff.
- Assist in the development and implementation of financial policies.
- Assist with adhoc contract support and reporting

Location: This position is located within the LHIN's London location.

How Do I Qualify?

Education:

- University degree in Mathematics/Finance/Business/Economics or equivalent education and experience.
- Successful completion of a CPA accounting designation or equivalent experience.

Experience:

- Minimum of three (3) years' recent experience in finance.
- Proven experience in project management and/or process improvement with the ability to translate seemingly complex concepts into clear and concise presentations.

Knowledge, Skills, and Abilities:

- Advanced Microsoft Office applications knowledge (Excel, Access, Great Plains Financial Systems, and Quadrant Workforce).
- Strong communication and presentation skills.
- Demonstrated leadership skills.

Preferred Qualifications:

- Recent experience in a health care organization or public sector.
- Proficiency in a second language, particularly French.
- An ambassador of workplace culture.
